CLCON 76 of 2004

Hon.P.C. Pant, J.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Learned counsel for the opposite parties states that the petitioner has already been regularised in compliance of the Court's order.

From the counter affidavit it is clear that there was no willful disobedience on the part of the opposite parties.

In view of the facts and circumstances as stated by the opposite parties the contempt petition appears to be infructuous. Accordingly, the same is dismissed and notices are discharged.
